

Most birds eat insects. Each species of California Native Oak supports more than 160 species of caterpillar. Caterpillars are food for baby birds!