

October Native Plants & Wildlife

Lynn reports: Possibly wasps sleeping in my Davis Gold Toyon. I was watering early in the morning when I spied these two sleeping beauties! I have been converting my front and back lawns into a native habitat that is 95% native plants. I am in Carmichael. I see sweet bees in my Abutilon palmerii sometimes.

We wish Lynn more wildlife coming as these plants mature!

